Careers Springboard West Berkshire is a self-help club for professionals, executives and managers, typically aged 45-plus, in the West Berkshire area who are seeking a new job. It aims to provide a caring environment to restore your self-confidence and support you during your search for new employment.

What Careers Springboard West Berkshire can do for you!

Careers Springboard West Berkshire will provide free information, advice and support to you to help you rebuild your career and restore your self-confidence. To this end we offer you the following opportunities:

- The opportunity to meet other members and share experiences in job seeking
- The opportunity to attend regular weekly meetings that will improve your understanding of the skills for seeking jobs and give you practical guidance
- The opportunity to hear speakers who are familiar with current job search techniques such as planning your self-marketing campaign, preparing CVs, responding to adverts, networking, preparing and attending interviews etc.
- The opportunity to participate in group discussions and share ideas and experiences
- The opportunity to receive advice from our volunteers on a 1-to-1 basis on any particular job search topic and how to cope with the problems associated with being out of work
- The opportunity to access, as determined by us, specific information and services, including career planning, a jobs database and interview training.

If at any time, you are not satisfied with our performance, please ensure that one of our officers knows, and we will do our best to rectify any problems. If you are still not satisfied you can make a formal complaint which will be dealt with thoroughly through our complaints procedure.
